Also MR. PRESIDENT:

Your Joint-Select Committee appointed on joint rules respectfully reports that it has had under consideration the joint rules and recommends that the joint rules of the Eighty-ninth Legislative Session be adopted as the joint rules of the Ninetieth Legislative Session with the following changes:

Amend Chapter 6 of the Joint Rules as follows:

6A-1. Legislative documents. Only bills and the following may be introduced in the Legislature:

(1) A House or Senate resolution, ~~which shall pertain~~ pertains to the affairs of one house only and ~~require~~ requires action only by the legislative chamber concerned. A House or Senate resolution may be used to express an opinion or principle of one house, to express an opinion to or request of the other house, to regulate procedure, or to refer the subject matter of bills to the Legislative Research Council;

(2) A concurrent resolution, ~~which shall express opinions and principles~~ expresses the opinion or a principle of the Legislature not having the force of law. A concurrent resolution ~~may~~ shall only be used to authorize interim studies, joint rules, sessions or committees, to ~~memorialize or~~ instruct a department of state government, or to petition federal agencies;

(3) A joint resolution, ~~which shall contain~~ contains matters of legislation only. A joint resolution may be used to refer a matter for referendum to the people, to place a constitutional amendment on the ballot at the next general election, to ratify proposed amendments to the United States Constitution, or to grant a water right pursuant to § 46-5-20.1;

(4) A House or Senate resolution of disapproval as provided under Article IV, Section 8, of the South Dakota Constitution; and

(5) A legislative commemoration, ~~which shall express~~ expresses recognition of service or achievements of national or statewide importance or ~~express~~ expresses sorrow over death or loss.

6B-3. Limit on number of bills that may be introduced. ~~No~~ A legislator may introduce as prime sponsor ~~more than only~~ three individual bills or joint resolutions during the last three days for bill introduction prescribed by Joint Rule Chapter 17. A legislator may introduce as prime sponsor only four concurrent resolutions, three of which must be introduced before the ninth legislative day. The final day for introduction of the fourth concurrent resolution is prescribed by Joint Rule Chapter 17.

6C-1. Bills and resolutions that require fiscal notes. A bill, amendment, or resolution ~~which~~ that has an effect on the revenues, expenditures, or fiscal liability of the state or any political subdivision of the state may include a fiscal note incorporating an estimate of the effect. This rule does not apply to the cost of legislative processing; or any appropriation bill with specific dollar amounts. A fiscal note is an estimate of the fiscal implications relating to revenues, expenditures or debt, and the probable cost of the bill, amendment, or resolution. In preparing the fiscal note, the Director of the Legislative Research Council may use information or data supplied by any person, agency, organization, or governmental unit that the director deems reliable. The director shall state the sources of the information or data used and may state the extent to which the director relied on the information or data in preparing the fiscal note. If the director is unable to acquire or develop sufficient information or data to prepare a fiscal note, the director may prepare the fiscal note stating that fact, and the fiscal note shall be deemed to comply with this rule. If the director determines that the fiscal impact of a bill, amendment, or resolution cannot be determined, the director may prepare the fiscal note stating that fact, and the fiscal note shall be deemed to comply with this rule.

This rule does not apply to fiscal impact statements required by §§ 2-1-19 and 2-1-20.

Amend Chapter 12 of the Joint Rules as follows:

12-3. Voting procedures. Questions shall be put in this form: "As many as favor the question, as stated, say 'Yea'; as many as are opposed to the question, as stated, 'Nay'." If the presiding officer doubts the result of a vote or if a division is called for, the members shall divide. Those in the affirmative shall ~~first~~ rise from their seats and remain standing until counted ~~and then those in the negative shall vote in like manner.~~

The joint rules and the rules of the Senate and House shall be printed in the House Journal.
